A party of two hundred Cheyenne Apache Indians attacked a coach on But terfield's Express route on Sunday vember 25,near Downess Spring, and killed six of the passengers and the express mes-senger, named Merwin. The following story about Jeff. Davis is

"One of the privates of the Twentieth Maine regiment, who settled in North Carolina after the close of the rebellion, nas reached here on his way to Washing ton to intercede for the pardon of Jeff Davis, having travelled on foot to Norsolk. It seems that he was found within the case of James and B. H. Porter, the settition for a peremptory mandamus to compel the Secretary of the Treasury to pay ertain claims, the court refused the prevent being a spy, and sentenced to be hung. He asked to be allowed to write to Mr Davis, and the request was granted. Havns of his captors, he bribed a rebel wai ter to take another letter, and through errvant of the household of the rebel President it reached him. The result was the a messenger was dispatched with an order for the Yankee soldier to be taken in mediately to the President's house. Upo his arrival the guard was dismissed with
